MISSOULA--

John O. Davies, Billings, vice president of Burlington Northern Inc., was reelected president of the Montana State Council on Economic Education (MSCEE) Wednesday (Nov. 18) in Helena at the annual meeting of the MSCEE Board of Directors.

The MSCEE board also reelected three men to serve as vice presidents during 1975. They are: James W. Murry, Helena, executive secretary of the State AFL-CIO; John Baucus, Helena, manager of the Sieben Ranch Company, and Paul A. Johnson, Great Falls, president of First Federal Savings and Loan. Dr. John H. Wicks, professor of economics at the University of Montana in Missoula, was elected MSCEE secretary-treasurer for 1975.

Reelected nominating committee chairman was Howard L. Knous, Helena, vice president of the Helena branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis. MSCEE finance cochairmen for 1975 include one man who was reelected to the post, C. Dan Regan, Butte, manager of employee, stockholder and public relations for the Montana Power Company, and the newly elected John Cadby, Helena, executive manager of the Montana Bankers Association.

Dr. John G. Photiades, assistant professor of economics and director of the Center for Economic Education at the University of Montana, was elected MSCEE executive director.

New MSCEE directors are: Gordon W. Nelson, Missoula, marketing officer for the Western Montana National Bank; Dr. Terry L. Anderson, Bozeman, assistant professor of agricultural economics and economics at Montana State University; Cadby, and Photiades.

Purpose of the MSCEE, a nonprofit organization, is to upgrade economic education in Montana.
